Tech company gives $29 million to Donorschoose.org projects

Ripple, a cryptocurrency startup company based in San Francisco, is spending $29 million to fund every classroom request on donorschoose.org.

There are currently more than 35,600 classroom requests made on the nonprofit crowdfunding platform. The announcement was made Tuesday night on “The Late Show,” hosted by Stephen Colbert.

The gift represents the largest donation received by DonorsChoose.org in its 18-year history, and likely represents the largest ever donation of a digital asset to a single charity. Ripple and its executives contributed the donation in XRP, which was converted to U.S. dollars and used to purchase the classroom materials.

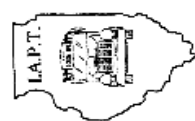

“At Ripple, we care about giving back to our community and we collectively value the importance of quality education in developing the next generation of leaders,” said Monica Long, SVP of Marketing at Ripple. “DonorsChoose.org’s track record speaks for itself — they are highly effective at improving the quality of education and the experience of teachers and students across America. We’re proud to work with them to support classroom needs across the country.”

IMPORTANT MESSAGE Regarding Professional Development

Effective This Year (June 30, 2018) and beyond...

If you do not have ALL your PD in by June 30 of the year you renew:

- Your license will lapse
- You will owe $500 to get it back
- You will still owe the remainder of your PD requirement in order to renew
- You cannot work until
 - 1) the $500 is paid
 - 2) your PD is entered and hourly requirement met
 - 3) you renew and pay to register

If you recall, it used to be Sept 1 (or actually the first day of school) or sooner if you were teaching summer school in July/Aug. They have emphasized this to us today that this will be how the ELIS system will operate.

Bottom Line according to ISBE: Don't test the system. Complete and enter all of your PD into your ELIS account, and renew and register your license before June 30 of your renewal year.

Pass it on!

Pass it on!

Free Residential Camp for Girls

Dear Illinois school teachers and counselors:

My name is Dr. Kathryn Seigfried-Spellar, and I am an assistant professor at Purdue University in the Department of Computer and Information Technology (CIT).

My Co-PI, Dr. Dawn Laux, and I were awarded a $100,000 GenCyber grant, funded by the NSA and NSF, to host a free, residential cybersecurity camp at Purdue University for 40 girls, incoming 9th-12th grade. The Purdue Cybersecurity camp is dedicated to increasing awareness and interest in cybersecurity careers as well as increasing diversity within the cybersecurity field. Some of the topics we cover include: digital forensics, the cybercriminal, robotics, and cryptography/steganography. The residential camp will be held Sunday, June 17th to Friday, June 22nd, 2018 at Purdue University.

For even more information on the 2018 Purdue Cybersecurity Camp, please visit: <https://polytechnic.purdue.edu/camps/gencyber>

We are specifically recruiting students from Indiana and its surrounding states. We believe a residential camp is the only way some students in the Midwest, who may also be economically disadvantaged, will have access to this opportunity. The Midwest is made up of many rural, farming communities, and it may be difficult for these smaller communities to participate in day-camps (e.g., mileage/distance, no public transportation, parents working full-time).

We hope that you can help us reach schools and teachers across the State of Illinois, so we can spread the word about this opportunity to interested students. Maybe we can create the next "generation of cyber stars" (GenCyber) from the Midwest.

Thank you again, and please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions. My contact information is below.

All the best, Dr. Kate
