Highly Qualified

Highly qualified designations will be removed from ELIS early next year. Educators may screenshot the page from their ELIS account to maintain a listing for recordkeeping. The passage of the federal Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), which was signed by President Barack Obama on December 10, 2015, requires educators to meet state and local licensure requirements, which means educators in Illinois must hold the proper license and endorsement or be qualified per Illinois Administrative Code to teach a specific position.

Want to Become Want to Become National Board Certified?

The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS) has announced 176 new NBCTs and 283 newly renewed NBCTs in Illinois. The total number of NBCTs in Illinois is 6,711.

Congratulations to all those achieving and renewing their certificates! We appreciate the dedicated work you do for our students every day in Illinois. For additional National Board statistics and information about Illinois please visit the NBPTS website. Continue the path to becoming an accomplished teacher by becoming National Board Certified! Read all about the process here.

Have you ever seen something that makes you say

“Why didn’t I know this?”

Well, that’s been happening to some of us a lot lately - so we have decided to start sharing some of that information here when we feel it might be useful to any of you! We’d love it if you would share similar items with us so that we can share it here. Computer hacks, presenter tricks, social media hints, teaching tips ... anything you feel might be handy/helpful for our school teachers, administrators and other staff.

- ⇒ Check out Print Friendly and Just Read - When I tried these I wondered “where have you been all of my computer life”. FREE, quick and easy to load and use. You can read, print or email only the parts of a web page that you want. Print an article after you remove the paragraphs that you are not interested in or email a recipe to someone without all the ads or photos with just a few clicks.
- ⇒ Snip n Sketch - If you have Windows 10 go to your 4 little windows (bottom left corner of your screen) and scroll down to Snip n Sketch and select it. You can take a screen shot, crop it, highlight parts of it, write on it, then save it or send it!
- ⇒ If you want to show a YouTube video without the ads or suggestions on the screen, check out ViewPure or use Google Slides to run it in presentation mode.

So now its your turn - send some of your favorite tips n tricks to info@roe40.com . We all have some tricks or hacks that might be helpful to someone.

FY 2021 Professional Development Cycle Development Cycle

All educators will be required to complete 120 professional development hours regardless of the number of types of degrees held beginning with the 201520 cycle (licenses renewing in fiscal year 2021) and every cycle thereafter. The only exception is those educators who are National Board Certified, who will only owe 60 hours. Please share this information with administrators and educators, as educators who are up for renewal July 1, 2020, will need to have completed 120 hours of PD (or 60 if National Board Certified.) For more information, please check out the Renewal & Professional Development for Educators page.

Please remember that beginning with the 2015-20 renewal cycle and every cycle thereafter, there are no longer any reductions for licensure renewal professional development hours. There will no longer be any reductions for advanced degrees, national certifications, etc., since these "pre-July 1, 2014" activities, as allowed under 25.800(e) of Administrative Code, were last applicable to FY 2020 license renewal.

Below is the baseline number of professional development hours educators will owe for license renewal, beginning with licenses renewed this spring/summer:

- Licensees holding National Board for Professional Teachers Certification: 60 hours (if serving in an administrative role, one Administrator Academy per year is also required.)

- Teachers who are not National Board Certified: 120 hours

- School support personnel who are not National Board Certified: 120 hrs

- Administrators who are not National Board Certified: 100 hours, plus one Administrator Academy per fiscal year

Educators who are due to renew their licenses this spring/summer should begin taking additional professional development hours now, so they will be able to accumulate the required hours needed to renew their licenses.

Please contact licensure@isbe.net or (217) 557-6763 with questions.
